THE NEWS OF POMARIA.

Death of W. Q. Hipp—Woodmen Elect Officers—Many Marriages—School Entertainment.

Pomaria, Dec. 13.—The high price of cotton and seed seem to have placed a smile on our farmers and merchants. A merry Christmas in and around Pomaria.

Several of our young boys will have the pleasure of beginning a new year with a beautiful young bride, several bells having already rang and some still to ring at an early date.

Mr. W. Q. Hipp died at his home near Pomaria Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock and was buried this afternoon at the family burying ground near his residence, the funeral service being conducted by the Rev. S. C. Ballentine of the Lutheran church. Mr. Hipp was about 64 years old and is survived by his widow and two children. A daughter, Mrs. J. H. Koon of Pomaria and a son, George, who lives in Columbia. Mr. Hipp was a highly esteemed citizen and very popular in his community and a successful farmer.

On Sunday last at 5:30 p. m., Mr. Marvin Graham and Miss Minnie Berley were happily married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Willie Berley, near Mt. Pleasant church. Both the bride and the groom are well known throughout the county. Their many friends wish them much happiness as they journey through the path of life together. They will set up housekeeping at once at the home of the groom at his father's old place, where they will breathe the pure air of a farm life. The ceremony was beautifully performed by the Rev. S. C. Ballentine, in the presence of the family and a few intimate friends.

At a meeting of W. O. W. camp here the following officers were elected: Counsel commander, Prof. Ben M. Setzler; clerk, James P. Setzler; past counsel commander, Dr. R. J. The camp is steadily growing, giving the protection degree to new members at every meeting.

Rev. W. A. Duckworth, pastor of the Broad river section, arrived here Saturday to take charge of the work of the three churches of that circuit recently vacated by Rev. D. P. Boyd, who has moved to Union, where he will make his home. On account of his age and failing health he is unable to preach. Rev. Boyd was an active preacher of the M. E. church for a number of years and is a Confederate veteran. We regret very much to give up Mr. Boyd from our midst and wish him very much success at his new home in Union. Rev. Duckworth, his successor, is a young man, unmarried, and will make his home at Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Graham's. We wish him much success in his new work.

THE NEWS OF PROSPERITY

Only Two Postmasters in Eighty Years—Many Social Functions—Community Christmas Tree.

Prosperity, Dec. 13.—We announce with pleasure that Mr. L. S. Bowers has been reappointed postmaster of Prosperity. Mr. Bowers has been our most efficient postmaster for 41 years and we hope he may serve us many more.

Prosperity can boast of something that not many towns of her age can boast of, and that is that she has been served by only two postmasters in her history. First, Mr. David Kibler, for 35 years, and the present incumbent, Mr. L. S. Bowers.

Mrs. O. B. Simpson complimented the bride-elect, Miss Alda Rae Wheeler with a miscellaneous shower on Friday afternoon. The drawing room was tastefully decorated in beautiful pink Killarney roses and ferns. Progressive rock was employed for a short while, during which Miss Marie Schumpert delighted the guests with an appropriate vocal selection. Next came two little girls, Rosalyn Miller and Myra Hunter, with drawing material, on which bungalows were drawn for the bride's future home.

Mrs. Tom Johnson of Newberry gave three charming readings called "Kiss-Me." During a most delightful two course luncheon the doorbell rang and a special messenger delivered a suit case packed with lovely gifts for Miss Wheeler.

Mrs. Simpson acted as toastmistress. Miss Mary Lizzie Wise responded to "The Bride Elect;" Mrs. George Harmon to "The Groom;" Miss Susie Langford to "The Bride of Yesterday," and Miss Effie Hawkins to "The Brides of Tomorrow." Miss Wheeler's wedding will be the beginning of many social events of the yuletide season.

Chief of Police Richardson and wife spent the week-end in Pomaria.

Mrs. Tom Johnson of Newberry spent Friday with Mrs. O. B. Simpson.

Great preparations are being made for the "community Christmas tree" which will be at the town hall on the night of December 25. This includes every child in Prosperity.

The bazaar and oyster supper given by the Ladies of the Methodist church was a great success, a nice sum being cleared.

Rev. E. P. Taylor spent last week in Batesburg.

Mr. A. H. Kohn of Columbia spent the week-end with Mrs. Kohn, who is visiting at the Wise hotel, and his many friends were glad to see him Sunday at church.

Mr. McFall Wise has been elected to fill the unexpired term of his father, the late Mr. J. L. Wise, as deacon in Grace church.

Misses Helen Nichols and Nannie Wheeler of Summerland college are here for the Wheeler-Simpson wedding.

Miss Jones of Columbia is the guest of Mrs. Frank Merchant.

Mr. J. D. Luther has returned from a business trip to Columbia.

Mrs. J. B. Bedenbaugh of Pomaria is spending a few days with the home folks.

The ladies of the Methodist church wish to express their appreciation to their friends for the liberal patronage given them at the bazaar Friday.

Mr. J. A. Sease is in Charleston this week attending grand lodge of Masons.

A Jeweler's Trying Experience.

In a few days thousands of Christmas gifts will be exchanged.

Many of them will be of an unknown quantity. No matter how much confidence the recipient may have in the donor, unless the article is in a case bearing some reputable jeweler's name there will be doubt as to the quality of the gift. This lingering doubt means a trip to the jeweler with the same old annoying questions, as, Is this gold? Is this silver? Is it worth anything? How much you reckon it cost? Often the jeweler has to tell his caller that the article is no good, or that it is of an inferior grade and invariably the disappointed inquirer replies in the same old words, "Well, I didn't know, as it was not in a jeweler's case. I did not know but what it came from Shears & Sawback or off a ten-cent punch board."

If you buy your jewelry from P. C. Jeans & Co. every article, however small, will be wrapped in a beautiful and attractive box bearing the name of the firm, which is a guarantee of the quality of the gift. advt.
